On behalf of the Korean-American Association of Chicago (KAAC), I am pleased to inform you that Camp Pride Korea has been chosen as one of the Korean-American Community Service Award recipients. Please join us at Korean Independence Day Ceremony for the Award

The Ceremony will be held at Chicago Covenant Presbyterian Church, 1424 Greenwood Road, Glenview, IL 60026 on August 15, 2017, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The KAAC is umbrella organization for all of the Korean American organizations as well as the representing body of 200,000 Korean Americans in the state of Illinois. Its first and foremost objective is to promote and defend civil rights of Korean Americans. The KAAC serves as the bridge between the Korean American community and the mainstream American society through many of events and collaborating with other social service agencies.

I also would like to know whether you can provide us with your organization's brief history so that we can share your story in our community.
